Disaster Plan

The Alabama Department of Human Resources is primarily responsible for coordinating the mass care function (All hazards response) in accordance with National Incident Management System (NIMS) and the State Emergency Operations Plan (SEOP). This is also known as Emergency Support Function 6 (ESF-6). For a detailed description of the responsibilities associated with the mass care function (ESF-6), please refer to page 39 of this document.

County Departments of Human Resources are responsible for specific disaster functions as determined by the Department and their relationship to the individual disaster. Elements of locals plans may differ but each plan will adhere to Emergency Support Function-6. In Planning for an effective response to disaster conditions, the Department works closely with public and private segments of the community to ensure human suffering will be kept to a minimum.

Upon receiving the activation request from the AEMA Director, the Emergency Management Coordinator is alerted and instructed when to report to the State Emergency Operations Center. The Commissioner meets with the management team to discuss the appropriate Departmental response.

In order to accomplish this task, the Department does the following:

State

- ▶ Review the State Plan with the Management Team
- ▶ Meet with County Directors via Conference Call
- ▶ Collect facts pertaining to existing or pending disaster relating to mass care
- ▶ Plan distribution and allocation of state resources in support of the mass care mission
- ▶ Activate DHR Emergency Response Plan
- ▶ Coordinate a state mass care response
- ▶ Coordinate the opening and closing of Shelters

State of Alabama

Department of Human Resources

County

- ▶ Review Plans
- ▶ Select Shelter Teams
- ▶ Prepare for Deployment to Shelters
- ▶ Network with local external agencies in preparing an appropriate response ▶ Begin planning for recovery activities

State of Alabama

Department of Human Resources

Activation of DHR staff needed to staff Mass Care shelters will begin when the Governor or the Alabama Emergency Management Agency declares that shelters will be opened due to a need existing within the state. The method for opening the shelters will vary from county to county depending upon the local mass care agreements. DHR staff will staff only those shelters approved by and meeting the American Red Cross Shelter guidelines.

Duties in Mass Care Shelters include, but are not limited to the following:

- Opening Shelter
- Maintaining custody of keys to the facility
- Providing training and assigning staff
- Registering evacuees
- Completing necessary forms and paperwork
- Overseeing the general operation
- Coordinating with security and building personnel where applicable
- Identifying and addressing situations which require special attention

DHR staff will not deploy to a shelter until the AEMA Emergency Management Information Tracking System (EMITS) request is received from the county EMA.

The Department of Human Resources staff shall not perform any duties related to medical assistance or any other duties outside the line and scope of their employment as indicated above. DHR staff members are not obligated and shall not perform any duties relating to medical assistance.

Should the Governor order a mandatory evacuation of a county, or portion of a county, due to a disaster declaration, DHR staff will still be required to staff emergency shelters in those counties. The local EMA staff will be responsible for ensuring that the shelters are safe for occupancy under the disaster conditions.

Any request from local officials not meeting the criteria above should be cleared with the Commissioner of DHR or his/her designee.

Memorandum of Understanding

Between

The American Red Cross

and

The State of Alabama

I. Purpose

The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") is to define a working relationship between The American Red Cross (hereinafter "Red Cross") and The State of Alabama, and its agencies, (hereinafter The State of Alabama), in preparing for and responding to certain disaster situations. This MOU provides the broad framework for cooperation and support between the Red Cross and The State of Alabama in assisting and serving the Alabama citizens who have been impacted by disaster, as well as other services for which cooperation may be mutually beneficial.

II. Independence of Operations

Each party to this MOU will maintain its own identity in providing service. Each organization is separately responsible for establishing its own policies and procedures.

III. Authorities

The State of Alabama

Alabama Code § 31-9-6 provides that the Governor is authorized to prepare a comprehensive plan and program for the emergency management of this state, such plans and program to be integrated and coordinated with emergency management plans of the federal government and of others states to the fullest extent possible. In addition, Ala. Code § 31-9-9 provides that the Governor on behalf of the state is authorized to enter into reciprocal aid agreements or compacts with the federal government.

The Red Cross provides disaster services pursuant to its Bylaws and other internal policies and procedures as well as its Congressional Charter (USC 36 §§300101-300111). In the Charter, Congress authorized the Red Cross "to carry out a system of national and international relief in time of peace, and apply that system in mitigating the suffering caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other great national calamities, and to devise and carry out measures for preventing those calamities."

On a local level, the Red Cross responds to all kinds of disasters. The disasters to which the Red Cross responds include any threatening event of such destructive magnitude and force as to dislocate people, separate family members, damage or destroy homes, or injure or kill people. A disaster produces a range and level of immediate suffering and basic human needs that cannot be promptly or adequately addressed by the affected people and impedes them from initiating and proceeding with their recovery efforts.

In addition to local resources, when events are larger than the local chapter's capacity, regional resources are brought in to augment the local chapter response. In very large events, the Red Cross' national capacity is brought to bear. This includes mass care resources, vehicles, telecommunications equipment, and a trained volunteer workforce of more than 90,000 individuals.

Some disasters are natural disasters, such as floods, tornados, hurricanes, typhoons, winter storms, tsunamis, hail storms, thunderstorms, wildfires, windstorms, epidemics, and earthquakes. Human-caused disasters, which may be intentional or unintentional, include residential fires, building collapses, transportation accidents, hazardous materials releases, explosions, and domestic acts of terrorism. All of these are within the Red Cross mission.

IV. Organization of the American Red Cross

The national headquarters of the Red Cross is located in Washington, D.C. National headquarters is responsible for implementing policies and procedures that govern Red Cross activities and provides administrative and technical supervision and guidance to the chartered units, which include chapters and blood services regions. Each chapter has certain authority and responsibility for carrying out Red Cross disaster preparedness and response activities, delivering local Red Cross services, and meeting corporate obligations within the territorial jurisdiction assigned to it. Each chapter is familiar with the hazards of the locality and surveys local resources for personnel, equipment, supplies, transportation, emergency communications, and facilities available for disaster relief. The chapter also formulates cooperative plans and procedures with local government agencies and private organizations for relief activities should a disaster occur.

Through its nationwide organization, the Red Cross coordinates its total resources for use in large disasters. In order to provide these services, the Red Cross may call on the Federal, state or local government for assistance when voluntary contributions do not meet the level of need services. These requests may be in the form of direct financial assistance, reimbursement for services, and/or and agreement to purchase necessary commodities to fulfill the needs of citizenry impacted. Services are provided to those in need regardless of citizenship, race, religion, age, sex, or political affiliation. In providing disaster services, the Red Cross follows the Fundamental Principles of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.

V. American Red Cross Disaster Relief Assistance

Red Cross emergency assistance is designed to minimize the immediate suffering caused by a disaster by providing food, clothing, shelter, first aid, and other assistance to address basic human needs. Red Cross emergency assistance may be provided either as mass care, individual assistance, or a combination of the two, depending on the victims' needs. Mass care is provided through any combination of three integrated elements: 1) individual or congregate temporary shelters; (2) fixed or mobile feeding operations, and (3) distribution of relief supplies. Individual assistance is provided to individuals and families through the purchase of needed items and/or services or referrals to other agencies and organizations that offer assistance to disaster victims at no charge. The Red Cross also processes welfare information requests. In addition to emergency assistance, the Red Cross participates in community recovery programs after major disasters.

Red Cross disaster response activities vary depending upon the nature and scope of the required response, as follows:

Mass Casualty Incidents: Mass casualty incidents are usually the result of transportation accidents, fires in high-occupancy structures, industrial accidents or similar disasters. In mass casualty disasters, the Red Cross closely coordinates with the authorities at the scene (including firefighters, police, and government agencies) and representatives of the owner/operator. Depending on the nature and scope of the disaster, the needs of the victims and workers, and the response of the owner/operator, the Red Cross may engage in a number of activities to assist victims, survivors, families of victims or survivors, emergency workers or others. These services include but are not limited to shelter, food, basic first aid, and mental health services.

Aviation Disasters: The Red Cross has a special role in major aviation disasters. Under the provisions of the Aviation Disaster Family Assistance Act of 1996 (P.L. 104-264), airlines, the National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB), and a "designated independent nonprofit organization" were given specific responsibilities with regard to coordinating the emotional care and support of the families of passengers involved in aviation disasters. The NTSB, as part of its Federal Family Assistance Plan for Aviation Disasters, has designated the Red Cross as the organization responsible for Family Care and Mental Health. The Red Cross has accepted this role and has specially trained staff on call on its "Critical response Team" (CRT) who initiate support within hours of a request from the NTSB for services.

Hazardous Material Situations: When an actual or potential hazardous material situation results in an evacuation, the Red Cross provides emergency mass care until families can return home. If public authorities deem it necessary for families to relocate permanently, the Red Cross works with other community organizations to provide temporary mass care or casework assistance.

The American Red Cross does not provide disaster assistance where government officials or agencies require building evacuation as a result of chronic deferred maintenance, code violations, radon contamination or fire hazards. The Red Cross coordinates with public health authorities with respect to health concerns and the possible need for decontamination, but the Red Cross does not engage in decontamination activities. If the Red Cross is operating evacuation shelters, evacuees and workers must undergo any necessary decontamination before they are admitted to the shelter as determined by state and local government officials.

Nuclear Facility or Transportation Accidents: In the event of an evacuation due to a nuclear power plant accident or transportation accident involving radioactive materials, the Red Cross provides mass care services for the evacuees and emergency workers. The Red Cross coordinates with public health authorities with respect to health concerns and the possible need for decontamination, but the Red Cross does not engage in decontamination activities. If the Red Cross is operating evacuation shelters, evacuees and workers must undergo any necessary decontamination before they are admitted to the shelter.

Civil Disorder: Situations involving civil disorder — such as riots or hostage incidents — are not within the usual scope of the Red Cross’s disaster relief activities. Nevertheless, when basic human needs are not being met as a result of civil disorder, the Red Cross may participate in community actions to supplement the efforts of civil authorities by providing mass care and other services upon request of appropriate government authorities if Red Cross resources are available. The Red Cross will provide services only in a safe and secure area.

Catastrophic Incident: A catastrophic incident, as defined by the National Response Framework, is any natural or manmade incident, including terrorism, that results in extraordinary levels of mass casualties, damage or disruption, and severely affects the population, infrastructure, environment, economy, national morale and/or government functions. A catastrophic incident results in sustained national effects over a prolonged period. In a catastrophic incident or other mass care incident resulting in activation of the National Disaster Medical System (NDMS), the Red Cross will work closely with appropriate state and local government and non-government partners to provide mass care, including shelter, feeding, first aid, and other assistance to address basic human needs in a safe environment.

Repatriation of U.S. Citizens and Dependents: During the emergency repatriation of U.S. citizens and dependents evacuated from foreign countries during emergencies, the Red Cross will, at designated ports of entry, cooperate with federal, state, local and voluntary agencies involved with their reception, temporary care and onward transportation, to provide shelter, feeding and basic first aid among other services.

Medical Needs Facilities: Management of medical needs facilities is beyond the scope of services allowed by American Red Cross Disaster Health Services Protocols. At the request of appropriate public health officials, local Red Cross units may provide limited feeding support to medical needs facilities, provided resources are available for such support without interfering with other service delivery. This feeding support will be the same as other recipients of American Red Cross feeding operations. If the local American Red Cross chapter, County EMA and the local Public Health Department decide to co-locate a medical needs facility with an American Red Cross shelter, the American Red Cross will supply all residents with an equal basic level of service. Any specialized medical equipment or dietary items needed by patients in the medical needs facility, even if co-located with an American Red Cross shelter, are the responsibility of the individual or the Public Health Department. Management of the medical needs section of the building remains with the Department of Human Resources or Public Health Department. It is agreed and understood that the doctors and other medical staff who work with patients in these units are under the guidelines of the Public Health Department and that any liability incurred as a result of their performance or failure to perform would not be the responsibility of the American Red Cross.

Hurricane Evacuation: As part of its mission, the American Red Cross will, to the best of its ability, provide sheltering and feeding services to hurricane evacuees. The American Red Cross will closely cooperate with the Department of Human Resources (DHR) and community based organizations to provide mass care services. If the number of evacuees is sufficient to overwhelm American Red Cross resources, the American Red Cross may request direct DHR support in providing staff at shelters.

Other Events or Situations: In the event of other unforeseen events or situations in which human suffering is involved, the Red Cross will coordinate with appropriate government and non-government partners to provide mass care, including shelter, feeding, first aid, and other assistance to address basic human needs, as resources are available to assist.

V. Role of The State of Alabama in Disaster Response Activities

Ala. Code § 31-9-4(d) provides that the Director of the Alabama Emergency Management Agency is responsible to the Governor for carrying out the program of emergency management in this state. The director is responsible for coordinating the activities of all organizations of emergency management within this state, and shall maintain liaison with emergency management agencies and organizations of the federal government.

The Governor is authorized and empowered to prepare a comprehensive plan and program for emergency management, such plans to be integrated and coordinated with the emergency management plans of the federal government to the fullest extent possible. In addition, the Governor is authorized and empowered to coordinate the preparation of plans and programs for emergency management by the political subdivisions of this state, such plans to be integrated into and coordinated with the emergency management plans and programs of this state, to the fullest extent possible. The State of Alabama Emergency Management Agency has been designated by the Legislature and the Governor as the coordinating agency for disaster operations. In conducting such operations, the State of Alabama Emergency Management Agency will encourage all State agencies and local government to work cooperatively with disaster relief agencies as established by laws of The State of Alabama and the United States.

The Director of the Alabama's Emergency Management Agency is responsible by statute and Governor's executive order for coordinating the emergency activities of all state department and agencies with local governments, private agencies, organizations, federal agencies and other state governments for both peacetime emergency and disaster situations, and situations resulting from war-caused actions. These activities include hazard mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery operations. These actions are detailed in the State Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) and its annexes, the State Radiological Emergency Response Plan, and other emergency plans.

VII. Cooperative Actions

The Red Cross and the State will coordinate in rendering their respective disaster relief activities in the following manner:

1. Maintain close coordination, liaison, and support at all levels of both the ARC and The State of Alabama by conferences, meetings, telephone, facsimile, e-mail, and other means. Include a representative of the other party in appropriate committees, planning groups and task forces formed to mitigate, prepare for, respond to, and recover from disasters and other emergencies. Develop joint Standard Operating Procedures for notification of disaster and emergency situations.
2. Keep each other informed of and during disaster and emergency situations, the human needs created by the events, and the actions they have taken regarding service delivery. Share current data regarding disasters, disaster declarations, and changes in applicable legislation.
3. During a disaster or emergency situation the Red Cross will, as appropriate at the request of the Alabama Emergency Management Agency, provide liaison personnel to The State of Alabama's Emergency Operations Center and any local Emergency Operations Centers during a disaster. The Alabama Emergency Management Agency will provide work space and, whenever possible, other required support, such as a computer, e-mail access and a designated phone line for the Red Cross liaison personnel assigned to The State of Alabama Emergency Operations Center. The local government will be responsible for providing work space and whenever possible, other required support, such as a computer, e-mail access and a designated phone line for the Red Cross liaison personnel assigned to any local Emergency Operations Center.
4. The American Red Cross, as a support agency for Mass Care in The State of Alabama Emergency Operations Plan, will cooperate with the Department of Human Resources, the primary agency for Mass Care (ESF 6), in providing sheltering and feeding services to persons displaced from their homes. The Red Cross will work closely with DHR staff at the State EOC to ensure that logistical support requests which DHR supports and submits to FEMA for federal assistance accurately reflect items the Red Cross needs to continue to provide services during an Incident of National Significance as designated by the President of the United States. The State of Alabama will ensure that requested supplies reach Red Cross facilities in a timely manner once they are received by the state.
5. During the time of disaster and readiness, keep the public informed of the cooperative efforts through the public information offices of the ARC and The State of Alabama.
6. The State of Alabama recognizes that the Red Cross is dependent upon voluntary public financial donations. In accordance with applicable laws and regulations, The State of Alabama will support the Red Cross and work together, as appropriate, to acquire necessary resources and identify funding sources that increase state capacity to respond to disasters and emergencies.

7. Allocate the responsibility for joint expenses, cost reimbursed expenses, fee for service, or other mutually agreed upon reimbursable process only in writing and only in advance of any commitment.
8. Advocate for programs and public policy/decisions, when appropriate, designed to mitigate disaster damage and loss of life in The State of Alabama.
9. Encourage mutual participation and coordination to maximize timely and comprehensive services to the community and mitigate duplication of efforts.
10. Actively seek to determine other areas, projects, and services within the Red Cross and The State of Alabama where cooperation and support will be mutually beneficial with jointly defined goals and objectives.
11. Use or display the name, emblem, or trademarks of the American Red Cross or The State of Alabama only in the case of defined projects and only with the prior express written consent of the other organization.
12. Make training, educational and other developmental opportunities available to the other party's personnel and explore joint training and exercises. Encourage all staff and volunteers to engage in training and exercises, as appropriate.
13. Explore opportunities for collaboration to provide community, family, and citizen disaster preparedness within The State of Alabama.
14. Allow the use of each other's facilities, as available and if agreed upon in writing, for the purpose of preparedness training, meetings and response and recovery activities.
15. Widely distribute this MOU within the Red Cross' and The State of Alabama's departments and administrative offices and urge full cooperation.
16. American Red Cross will assist The State of Alabama in maintaining a statewide database of potential shelter locations by providing information on American Red Cross shelter facility agreements in the National Shelter System.
17. American Red Cross will develop and maintain a relationship with the Governor's Office of Faith Based and Community Initiatives and Alabama VOAD to facilitate cooperation before, during and after disasters.
18. The State of Alabama, based on its resources, and if deemed to be in the best interest of Alabama residents, may provide material support to shelters and feeding operations managed by the American Red Cross during normal disaster response situations. For Incidents of National Significance, resource needs above and beyond what the State can provide will be quickly worked through the FEMA logistics system to ensure that mass care services can continue to be provided by the American Red Cross.

Examples of additional Cooperative Actions (as applicable):

- The State of Alabama's specific Disaster Leave Law, Acts, or Executive Orders.
- The ARC will support The State of Alabama in integrating the efforts of the non-governmental organizations (NGOs) that provide mass care services during response operations.
- The ARC will assist in the State response to emergencies and disasters with responsibilities in support of Emergency Support Function (ESF) 6, 8, etc.
- The ARC will, as appropriate, at the request of The State of Alabama assist the State mass care lead agency in mass care planning and response coordination with other non-governmental organizations (NGOs).
- Jointly develop plans, protocols and procedures to maximize sharing and utilization of nursing staff at ARC shelters and other State of Alabama emergency sites.

VIII. Periodic Review

The parties will, on an annual basis, on or around the anniversary date of this MOU, jointly evaluate their progress in implementing this MOU and revise and develop new plans or goals as appropriate.

IX. Term and Termination.

This MOU is effective as of September 15, 2010. It expires on September 15, 2015. Six months prior to expiration, the parties will meet to review the progress and success of the cooperative effort. In connection with such review, the parties may decide to extend this MOU for an additional period not exceeding five years, and if so shall confirm this in a signed writing. This MOU may be terminated by written notification from either party to the other at any time and for any reason or for no reason.

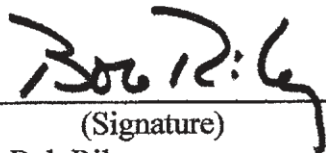

X. Miscellaneous

This MOU does not create a partnership or a joint venture. Neither party has the authority to bind the other to any obligation. It is not intended that this MOU be enforceable as a matter of law in any court or dispute resolution forum. The sole remedy for non-performance under this MOU shall be termination, with no damages or penalty.

I. Introduction

A. Purpose

Emergency Support Function (ESF) #6 – Mass Care, Emergency Assistance, Housing, and Human Services supports State, local, and tribal governments, and voluntary agency efforts to address the mass care, emergency assistance, housing, and human services needs of individuals and/or households impacted by disasters, and emergencies.

Emergency Support Function Annex for ESF # 6 (Mass Care, Emergency Assistance, Housing and Human Services) to the State of Alabama Emergency Operations Plan (EOP)

B. Scope

1. The policies and concepts of this annex apply to State departments and agencies, the American Red Cross (ARC), The Salvation Army (TSA), and the Alabama Volunteer Organizations Active in Disasters (VOAD) following emergencies or disasters that exceed the local response and recovery capabilities.
2. The type and focus of ESF #6 support may vary depending on the magnitude and type of event, and the stage of the response and recovery efforts.
3. This annex promotes individual and household response and recovery efforts based on the disaster or incident priorities to include economic assistance and other services for people who were impacted by the disaster.

a. Mass Care Function

This function includes sheltering, feeding operations in shelters, emergency first aid, bulk distribution of emergency items, and collecting and providing information on victims to family members. The Alabama Department of Human Resources (DHR), in its role as ESF #6 lead, coordinates closely with the Alabama Emergency Management Agency and other State, local, and voluntary agencies to provide mass care resources to support and augment mass care capabilities.

(1) Shelter: Sheltering includes the use of designated shelter sites in existing structures within the affected area(s), as well as additional sites designated by the State and local governments. State shelter sites will be selected to maximize accessibility for individuals with disabilities. Sheltering may also include the use and/or creation of temporary facilities or shelters, and the use of similar facilities outside of the affected area(s) in the disaster-impact area should evacuation be necessary.

(2) Feeding: Feeding includes the combination of fixed sites, mobile feeding units, and bulk distribution sites to provide standard feeding to victims and emergency workers in shelters.

(3) Emergency First Aid: Emergency first aid includes providing basic first aid to victims and workers at mass care shelters and other designated sites, and referral to appropriate medical personnel and facilities within the impacted area. This service is supplemental to emergency health and medical services.

(4) Disaster Welfare Information: The collecting and provision of information regarding individuals residing within the affected area to immediate family members outside the affected area through the Red Cross Disaster Welfare Information (DWI) system is another capability.

(5) Bulk Distribution: The responsibilities and requirements for the bulk distribution of emergency relief items will be identified and addressed in ESF#7 – Logistics Management and Resources Support Annex.

b. Emergency Assistance Function

This function includes the coordination and provision of aid required by individuals, families, and communities to ensure that immediate needs beyond the scope of “traditional” mass care are augmented and fulfilled.

(1) Mass Evacuation: Members of the ESF #6 and supporting Branches may provide staff to support local and tribal authorities with mass evacuation. ESF #6 mass evacuation activities and requirements are identified and addressed in the Mass Evacuation Incident Annex to the NRF, as well as the Mass Evacuation Support Annex to the State of Alabama EOP.

(2) Facilitated Reunification: Provides Disaster Welfare Information (DWI) to aid in the reunification of family members within the affected area(s) who were separated at the time of the disaster. Tracking, locating, registering, and reuniting evacuees and survivors are activities performed at local, State, and Federal levels.

(3) Household Pets and Service Animals: ESF #6 ensures coordination of mass care services to provide for the safety and well-being of household pets and service animals during evacuations and sheltering. ESF #8 and ESF #11 - Agriculture and Natural Resources will ensure support to ESF #6 through an integrated response. ESF #11, under ESF 6-5

ESF #6, coordinates support services for household pets and service animals during disasters. When requested, ESF #6 will collaborate with ESF #8 and ESF #11 to ensure coordination of support to household pets and service animals. The emergency response community recognizes the varying and special requirements of individuals that require and utilize service animals and is committed to ensuring that the physical and mental health needs of these individuals are appropriately addressed and that the individuals and service animals remain together to the maximum extent possible during evacuation, transport, sheltering, or the delivery of other services and in accordance with the requirements of the ADA.

(4) General, Specialized, Medical, and Nonconventional Shelters: ESF #6 will provide assistance, resources, and technical assistance in support of local and tribal governments and VOLAGs when conventional and nonconventional congregate care systems and shelter-in-place activities are in need of additional resources as determined by the State. Congregate care facilities are accessible to individuals with disabilities, whenever possible.

Nonconventional sheltering may include:

- Hotels, motels, and other single-room facilities.
- Temporary facilities such as tents, prefab module facilities, trains, and ships.
- Specialized shelters and functional and medical needs shelters (through coordination with ESF #8).
- Support for other specialized congregate care areas that may include respite centers, rescue areas, and decontamination processing centers.

(5) Support to Unaffiliated Volunteers and Unsolicited Donations: Support to National and Alabama Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (National and Alabama VOAD), the Governor's Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives (GFBCI), and international relief organizations to support the efforts of local voluntary agencies and faith-based organizations to manage donations which includes the following:

- A database system to manage and record offers of donated goods and services.
- Warehouse support for housing unsolicited donated goods.

- Coordination of unsolicited private and international donations.

(6) Voluntary Agency Coordination: ESF #6 works in concert with local and tribal governments, VOLAGs, faith-based organizations, and the private sector to facilitate an inclusive, multiagency, communitywide, and coordinated response and recovery effort.

ESF #6 works with local officials, private nonprofit organizations, and others to establish a long-term recovery strategy to address the unmet needs of individuals and families, including those with special needs. ESF #6 may also coordinate with the National and Alabama VOADs, GFBCI, and international relief organizations to support the efforts of local voluntary agencies and faith-based organizations.

ESF #6 coordinates among nontraditional and newly formed voluntary agencies, existing social service agencies, and other government agencies with formal coalitions such as VOAD and Long-Term Recovery Committees. Nontraditional voluntary agencies include disaster response or recovery service providers that have not been involved with the planning and coordination efforts prior to a particular event. New voluntary agencies include groups that form in response to a particular event.

c. Housing Function

This function provides for short-term and long-term housing assistance to disaster victims as further defined and discussed in the National Disaster Housing Strategy, including (but not limited to):

(1) The identification of various factors that could impact the housing mission and development of a plan of action to provide housing assistance in the most effective, expedited, and efficient manner available.

(2) The identification of housing needs and the development and implementation of short- and long-term housing solutions for victims.

(3) The provision of information on housing assistance available in the form of grants, rental assistance, temporary housing, and/or loans for the restoration of primary residences.

d. Human Services Function

This function supports assistance for the immediate personal needs of disaster victims such as (but not limited to) the following:

(1) Supports a coordinated system to address victims' disaster-related recovery efforts through crisis counseling, mental health and substance abuse services.

(2) Coordinates with the local jurisdictions to assess the situation and determine the appropriate use of available resources.

(3) Coordinates and identifies special needs populations within the impacted area to include people who are elderly, non-English speaking people, and people with disabilities.

(4) Coordinates efforts to support voluntary organizations responding to incidents.

(5) Works with the local, State and Tribal governments, and others to coordinate collecting, processing, and distributing donations; manage spontaneous volunteer issues, and supervise volunteer workers.

(6) Assists communities with immediate, short- and/or long-term counseling for individuals, households, and groups dealing with the anxieties, stress, and trauma associated with an Incident of National Significance or other emergencies.

II. Policies: The underlying principles for the role of the State Government and supporting nongovernmental and voluntary organizations operating at the State, Local, Tribal, or field level include:

- A. Activating, as needed, in anticipation of, or immediately following, a disaster emergency, or widespread incident.
- B. Implementing mass care, housing activities and human services programs without regard to economic status, racial, religious, political, ethnic, or other affiliation.

- C. Supporting all ESF #6 activities and services in accordance with existing State and Federal statutes, rules, and regulations.
- D. Supporting State and Federal agencies providing response and recovery assistance under independent authorities to the State, local, and Tribal governments, individuals, and the private sector.
- E. Coordinating activities and assessments to determine need for additional assistance through the ESF.
- F. Assigning staff support to ESF #6 to work in accordance with parent agency policies and procedures.
- G. Coordinating recovery and mitigation assistance to provide efficient and effective response and recovery benefits, ensure that duplicate benefits are not awarded and to support State, local, and Tribal planning efforts.

III. Concept of Operations

A. General/Overview

- 1. An emergency or disaster incident may severely damage or disrupt access to homes, businesses, transportation systems, communication systems, etc., throughout the impacted area. Initial response activities focus on meeting urgent needs of disaster victims on a mass care basis.
- 2. During response and recovery activities, ESF #6 provides support based on incident-related needs and priorities.

Department of Human Resources

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES EVACUEE SHELTER POLICY

5-30-06

In accordance with Emergency Support Function #6 (Mass Care), Department of Human Resources employees will be required to work in evacuee shelters before, during, and after a disaster. Directors in each county DHR office will develop a plan in coordination with county officials, the local EMA office, the Red Cross, and other community partners, to ensure that both general and medical needs shelters are appropriately staffed by DHR employees and/or employees or volunteers from other community resources and agencies. The number of available DHR personnel in each county may limit the ability of DHR to fully staff all shelters within a county.

Unless an alternate plan has been developed with the county EMA, County Directors should plan to staff evacuee shelters for up to 72 hours. County DHR staff will not be required to staff shelters for more than 72 hours except in extraordinary circumstances as determined by the DHR Commissioner. If it is determined that shelters need to remain open for longer than 72 hours, DHR staff from all 67 county offices and the State DHR Office may be tasked by the Commissioner to assist the affected counties in staffing shelters and performing other post disaster activities.

Shelter duties of the DHR county director and DHR county employees include, but may not be limited to, the following:

- Coordinate the opening, closing, and operation of the shelter facility;
- Coordinate with other agencies to ensure the shelter has adequate supplies and food;
- Coordinate with local EMA Director to ensure that the shelter meets necessary building and fire codes;
- Register evacuees who enter the shelter;
- Perform other administrative duties as needed.

DHR staff shall not perform any medical duties or assist evacuees with medical or health needs. DHR staff are not trained to perform medical duties and doing so could injure the evacuee and place an employee in the position of acting outside of the line and scope of his or her duties and responsibilities. DHR County Directors should insure that the County EMA or county officials provide EMT personnel or other medically trained individuals to staff the shelters and handle any medical or health related needs of the evacuees.

State of Alabama

Department of Human Resources

Medical Needs Shelters

Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) has designated certain shelters as medical needs shelters. DHR staff will perform all administrative duties as outlined above in these shelters. ADPH will provide medical staff who will perform all medical and health related duties in the medical needs shelters and will set the criteria for admittance of evacuees to these shelters. DHR is not responsible for providing special meals for evacuees on special diets. Evacuees in the medical needs shelter who are on special diets are required to bring their own food with them to the shelter.

DHR county offices are tasked to staff only the medical needs shelters designated by ADPH. County Directors must obtain permission from the DHR Commissioner before agreeing to staff a locally designated medical needs shelter.

Hurricane Evacuee Shelters

Hurricane shelters must meet additional safety requirements before being staffed by DHR employees. If a shelter is located in an area where Category 2 or higher hurricane winds are forecast, the building where the shelter is located must be certified as being capable of withstanding the forecasted winds. This certification may be made by the American Red Cross, an independent structural engineer, or other qualified person or organization. The County Director must have the certification in writing from the local EMA Director before staffing a shelter in an area where category 2 or higher winds are forecast.

If the Governor orders a mandatory evacuation of an area, DHR staff will be required to work in shelters in those areas if the building is certified, as described above, as being capable of withstanding the forecasted winds.

MEMORANDUM

May 13, 2015

TO: Deputies and Management Team
County Directors
State Office Division/Office Directors

FROM: Nancy T. Buckner
Commissioner NTB

SUBJECT: Evacuation Shelter Duties

It is important that our staff understands their responsibilities in a disaster situation. As per the Governor's Executive Order 41 dated May 20, 2008, and Executive Order 33 dated July 31, 2012, and per the 2012 State Emergency Operations Plan, DHR is the Emergency Support Function 6 (ESF-6) lead agency. ESF-6 includes coordination of Sheltering and Mass Care.

Please refer to DHR's Emergency Welfare Services Disaster Response Plan located on iDHR. I recommend that you review the policies in this plan with your employees.

Please ensure your staff understands that DHR employees are required to work in evacuation shelters before, during, and after a disaster, such as a hurricane. If they have responsibility for family members, they should make a plan to have someone else care for their family while they are working in a shelter. Additionally, they may need to have someone available who can evacuate their family if an evacuation order is issued. In a county, or portion of a county, under an evacuation order, shelters may be opened by local Emergency Management Agencies (EMA). DHR staff will be required to work in these shelters if the shelters are certified as being capable of withstanding the forecasted winds.

Please contact Paul Smelley at paul.smelley@dhr.alabama.gov or 334.353.3387 if you have any questions about these policies or your responsibilities in responding to a disaster situation. Thank you for your work and preparation.
